United Hebrew of New Rochelle Lazarus Gallery
Features A Feast For The Eyes:
A Food-Themed Art Exhibition
December 18, 2011 – April 8, 2012

New Rochelle, NY – (December 18, 2011) - The Lazarus Gallery of United Hebrew of New Rochelle's nursing home and rehabilitation center in Westchester County, NY, is presenting a new exhibition entitled A Feast For the Eyes: A Food-Themed Art Exhibition. The exhibit features artwork reflecting food in unique and creative ways. Artists have explored their personal interpretations of food to form a smorgasbord of ideas and transform the gallery into a large canvas of culinary colors. The exhibit, which features over 30 visual artists from around the region, will be in the Lazarus Gallery of the new nursing and rehabilitation pavilion through April 8, 2012. It includes photography, mixed media, sculpture, ceramics, jewelry and fiber art. An artists' reception took place on Sunday, December 18th where the artists, visitors, and families gathered to take in the "feast" of artwork.

"We are so pleased to be presenting such a unique and delectable exhibit for our residents, family members, and visitors." said Linda Forman, Vice President of Community Relations. "The Lazarus Gallery is a wonderful space for life-long learning and the creative arts."

The curator for the exhibition is Jodi Moise of New Rochelle. For more information or RSVP, contact Linda Forman, VP of Community Relations, United Hebrew at 914-632-2804 x1224 or lforman@uhgc.org.
