FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE - April 19, 2010

United Hebrew of New Rochelle's Nursing Home and Assisted Living Host Intergenerational Olympics

Teen Volunteers Join Residents for Activity and Fun

New Rochelle, NY - (April 19, 2010) -Laughter and fun prevailed as United Hebrew of New Rochelle (UH) residents teamed up with visiting local students for an afternoon of Olympics-style events recently at UH's first-ever Intergenerational Olympics. Over Thirty-five residents and thirty students participated. The event was coordinated by United Hebrew, the New Rochelle Office for Aging, and the Westchester County Southeast Regional Livable Communities Connection in United Hebrew's new nursing home and rehabilitation pavilion, which is part of UH's Harry and Jeanette Weinberg campus of residences and services for older adults. Residents from Willow Towers Assisted Living, part of the United Hebrew family of services, also participated.

Students from Pelham High School, New Rochelle High School Key Club, and Academic Pathways, dedicated a day of their school

Spring Break to community service by interacting with residents and escorting them to the many activities. Bowling competitions, wheelchair races, card games and relays took place at stations around the first floor of United Hebrew's new Skalet Pavilion. "We are always excited to see our residents and young people interacting in such a positive way," said Rita Mabli, President/CEO of United Hebrew. "Intergenerational activities enrich the lives of both seniors and teens."
