

United Hebrew Geriatric Center Welcomes New Board Members

New Rochelle, NY - (October 31, 2007) -- Audrey G. Kubie and Lewis I. Knopf have joined the Board of Directors of The United Hebrew Geriatric Center (UHGC), a multi-service senior living campus in New Rochelle, NY.

"Audrey's extensive experience with and dedication to helping others will lend itself well to the advancement of UHGC and our programming," said Rita Mabli, UHGC president and CEO. Mabli added that Knopf's interest in the aging arena will lend important insight from a scientific point of view. "His experience in information technology will also be invaluable as we continue to adopt the latest technologies in our livable community initiative," she said.

A resident of New York City, Kubie has served on the Auxiliary Board of Mount Sinai Hospital for 15 years and the Board of Advisors for Mount Sinai's Sexual Assault and Violence Intervention Center for nine years.

An active volunteer with the Corinne Goldsmith Dickinson Multiple Sclerosis Center at Mount Sinai, Kubie is also involved with the American Red Cross of Greater New York as a volunteer in the Disaster Mental Health area.

Kubie recognizes the need for quality eldercare as the country's population ages. "United Hebrew Geriatric Center addresses a variety of living options for the elderly and treats its residents with a high degree of compassion," she said. "I am proud to serve on its Board of Directors."

Kubie holds a Bachelors Degree and Master of Public Administration degree from Syracuse University's Maxwell School and a Master of Social Work from New York University's Eshkol School of Social Work.

Lewis I. Knopf of East Rockaway, NY is a consultant for LifeScape BioSciences; past president and COO of Consolidated Billing Solutions; and past Executive Vice President of Reuters Ltd. He serves as a board member for a variety of organizations, including Mountaincow, a software company; Consolidated Billing Solutions; and Wireless Ink. He sits on the Review and Selection Committee of the Long Island Technology Incubator and is past chairman of LISTnet, the Long Island Software and Technology Network. Knopf is also involved with the National Council of Jewish Women.

"I am looking forward to making an impact on improving the quality of life for seniors," Knopf said.

Knopf holds a Bachelor of Science degree in industrial engineering from Lehigh University.

United Hebrew Geriatric Center is located at 391 Pelham Road, New Rochelle. For further information, call 914.632.2804 or visit www.uhgc.org.

About United Hebrew Geriatric Center: United Hebrew Geriatric Center (UHGC) is a vibrant not-for-profit, non-sectarian, multi-service senior living campus serving the Westchester metropolitan area since 1919. UHGC offers a rich array of skilled and community-based programs and services that encourages and supports a life of dignity and spirituality and promotes the highest possible quality of life. UHGC serves over 600 clients daily in its campus facilities -- Willow Towers, a 126 unit assisted living residence; a 270 bed Nursing Home; the 135 unit Low-Savin Apartments for seniors; a Long Term Home Health Care Program; and the Azor Home Health Agency. Its newest project, the renovation and expansion of its nursing home facility, combines world-class care with state-of-the-art features.
