

United Hebrew Geriatric Center to Hold Annual Golf Tournament Funds to support UGC Foundation

New Rochelle NY - (July 2, 2007) -- The UGC Foundation of the United Hebrew Geriatric Center (UHGC) in New Rochelle will hold its 22nd Annual Golf Tournament and Dinner on Monday, October 1, 2007 at Old Oaks Country Club, Purchase. Proceeds generated from the tournament will help the UGC Foundation in its mission to support the care of chronically ill and frail seniors. Last year, 88 golfers participated in the tournament, which raised over $123,000.

This year's golf tournament will begin at 10:00 a.m. with registration, practice and a full breakfast buffet. A shotgun start will follow at noon. Between 1:00 p.m. and 4:00 p.m., a barbeque lunch will be served at The Halfway House, and at 5:00 p.m., cocktails and hors d'oeuvres will be served on the main terrace. Dinner and an awards presentation will follow.

Now in its third year, The Peter Lane Memorial Trophy will be awarded to the low gross foursome. The award was established by UHGC to memorialize the past president of UHGC's Board of Directors.

Old Oaks Country Club is set on 220 acres, and the 18-hole golf course was designed by Tillinghast. The 80,000 square foot clubhouse, built in 1898 and renovated several times, includes a ballroom, member grill room, pool area, dining room, two outdoor terraces, outdoor fountain garden and an arbor garden.

Rita Mabli, UHGC president and CEO, is proud of the continued success of the tournament. "This annual tournament is an important component of our fundraising efforts," she said. "Participants and sponsors are able to enjoy a day at the links while helping to raise funds for an important cause."

Anthony Nardozi of Bedford will serve as event chairperson.

The UGC Foundation is currently accepting sponsorships and foursomes. Prices are $750 per golfer and $2,800 per foursome.
