United Hebrew of New Rochelle Hosts September 11th Memorial

New Rochelle (September 10, 2010) United Hebrew of New Rochelle, a campus of senior residences and services, hosted a special annual service to commemorate the victims of the September 11th tragedy. Over 100 residents and staff said prayers of remembrance, read poems, had a moment of silence and sang together. 100 year old resident, Maria Tamburro, lead the flag procession. New Rochelle police detective Jason Buono and Police Officer Frank Lore also participated. The service was followed by a candle lighting ceremony.
