Willow Towers Assisted Living Residence in New Rochelle Hosts Albert Leonard Middle School Students for a Day of Intergenerational Caring and Sharing

Honor Society Volunteers Bring Holiday Cheer to Residents of Westchester-based Seniors' Community

New Rochelle, NY – December 23, 2009 – Willow Towers, (<http://www.willowtowers.com>) an assisted living community in New Rochelle, in Westchester, NY, welcomed two dozen enthusiastic Albert Leonard Middle School students who came to sing holiday songs with seniors, decorate a tree and cookies, and read newspapers and holiday stories together as part of their school's community outreach this month. The intergenerational event brought smiles and laughter to Willow Towers residents and staff as they worked along side the students to trim the tree or spread icing and sprinkles on traditional sugar cookies at Willow Towers, which is located on United Hebrew of New Rochelle's gracious 7-acre Harry and Jeanette Weinberg Campus.

"This event was truly enjoyable and got everyone into the holiday spirit; we hope it will become an annual tradition," said United Hebrew's President and CEO Rita Mabli. The senior residents and the students said they would like to reunite in the New Year and enjoy more activities together. "Bringing the community to our campus gives the residents a feeling of belonging to the community as a whole," adds Jean Dunphy, Executive Director of Willow Towers.
