

UNITED HEBREW

GERIATRIC CENTER

New Rochelle Chamber Names UHGC's Rita Mabli Corporate Professional of the Year

New Rochelle, NY - (May 21, 2006) - The New Rochelle Chamber of Commerce has recognized Rita Mabli, Executive Vice President/CEO of United Hebrew Geriatric Center (UHGC), as Corporate Professional of the Year. Ms. Mabli was honored at this evening's 2006 Annual Recognition Dinner Dance at the Greentree Country Club in New Rochelle. The annual dinner gives the Chamber an opportunity to recognize members of the Chamber and the community who have made exceptional contributions to the commerce and community of New Rochelle.

"The Chamber recognizes Rita Mabli's extraordinary dedication to the community in her role as Executive Vice President/CEO of UHGC. She consistently evaluates the broad spectrum of services her facility provides to strengthen older adults so that they continue to have the opportunity to lead healthy, more enriched lives," said Denise Lally, Executive Director of the New Rochelle Chamber of Commerce. "Rita also is closely involved with the Chamber's growth through her participation as an Executive Officer of our Board of Directors, co-chair of our Women in Business program and one of the Chamber's Corporate Council members. Her investment in the community is exemplary. "

Mabli joined the staff of UHGC in 1976 as director of personnel. In her current position, she is responsible for the daily operation of the Center's many components. Mabli was instrumental in the development of Willow Towers, a UHGC assisted living facility that was planned and built to complement the revitalization of New Rochelle. Currently she serves on the boards of the UGC Foundation and New Rochelle Chamber and is Past President of the Association of Westchester & Rockland Long Term Care Administrators.

Mabli lives with her husband and daughter in New Rochelle. An active member of the community, Ms. Mabli is Coordinator of the Ministry of Lectors of Holy Name of Jesus Church. She was active in fundraising activities for both her church and The Ursuline School.

At the dinner, the Chamber recognized several other individuals: Mr. Noel Fearon (KT Electronics) - Business Owner of the Year; Capt. Robert Gazzola (NRPD) - Community Leader of the Year; Ms. Patricia Anderson (New Rochelle Public Library) - Educational Leader of the Year; Commissioner Craig King - Government Leader of the Year; Ms. Mickie Fosina - (NR Resident) - Humanitarian of the Year; and Dr. Madhu Rangraj - (Sound Shore Medical Center) - Professional of the Year.

About the United Hebrew Geriatric Center of New Rochelle:

UHGC is a vibrant not-for-profit, non-sectarian, multi-service senior living campus serving the Westchester metropolitan area since 1919. UHGC offers a rich array of skilled and community-based programs and services that encourages and supports a life of dignity and spirituality and promotes the highest possible quality of life. UHGC serves over 600 clients daily in its campus facilities -- Willow Towers, a 126 unit assisted living residence with The Phoenix Neighborhood for those with memory impairment; a 270 bed Nursing Home; the 135 unit Low-Savin Apartments for seniors; a Long Term Home Health Care Program; and the Azor Home Health Agency. Its newest project, the renovation and expansion of its nursing home facility, combines world-class care with state-of-the-art features.

Website: www.uhgc.org

Local Press Contacts:

Mike Dardano

Co-Communications, Inc.

914-666-0066

mike@cocommunications.com

Photo Caption: (left to right) Malcolm Lazarus, President of the Board, United Hebrew Geriatric Center, New Rochelle, NY; Rita Mabli, Executive Vice President/CEO of United Hebrew Geriatric Center, New Rochelle, NY

