

Third Annual Chef's Tasting Event Helps Support United Hebrew Geriatric Center

New Rochelle, NY (August 7, 2006) - The third annual Chef's Tasting, to benefit the UGC Foundation of the United Hebrew Geriatric Center (UHGC) was held on Tuesday, May 23, 2006 at the Willow Towers assisted living residence.

More than 150 people enjoyed tastings from many of Westchester's finest restaurants, including Balducci's, Fratelli, Jani, MacMenamin's Grill, Mamma Francesca, Mulino's of Westchester, Rangoli, Rustico, Tequila Sunrise, Terra Rustica, The Sterling Inn, and Turquoise.

Attendees were welcomed by event chairperson Harrin Platzner, a New Rochelle businessman. New Rochelle Mayor Noam Bramson acknowledged the importance of giving to a good cause that helps seniors in the community. Rita Mabli, UHGC Executive Vice President/CEO, thanked the numerous volunteers and participating restaurants, and welcomed to the podium Beverly Green, the generous benefactor of Willow Towers. UHGC extends a special thanks to its generous sponsors: The Surf Club, Morrison Senior Dining, Shore Road Wine & Spirits and Sysco. A wine tasting was conducted by Ned Towle, Owner of the Westchester Wine School.

UHGC's 4.5 acre campus on Pelham Road in New Rochelle encompasses a 270 bed skilled nursing facility, independent housing for seniors and Willow Towers, a new assisted living community. UHGC offers an array of amenities and delightful views of the Long Island Sound. Willow Towers also offers The Phoenix Neighborhood for those with memory impairment.

UGC is a 501(c)(3) charitable organization. The UGC Foundation supports the United Hebrew Geriatric Center in caring for the neediest and most impaired seniors in our society.

About the United Hebrew Geriatric Center of New Rochelle:

UHGC is a vibrant not-for-profit, non-sectarian, multi-service senior living campus serving the Westchester metropolitan area since 1919. UHGC offers a rich array of skilled and community-based programs and services that encourages and supports a life of dignity and spirituality and promotes the highest possible quality of life. UHGC serves over 600 clients daily in its campus facilities -- Willow Towers, a 126 unit assisted living residence with The Phoenix Neighborhood for those with memory impairment; a 270 bed Nursing Home; the 135 unit Low-Savin Apartments for seniors; a Long Term Home Health Care Program; and the Azor Home Health Agency. Its newest project, the renovation and expansion of its nursing home facility, combines world-class care with state-of-the-art features.
